Hi.

We were in the process of working out a date/time to propose for a teleconference before getting back to you, but we were thinking in terms of a few weeks from now. Are you able to describe the general nature of the time sensitive matters, or would you prefer to keep that to the call?

Meanwhile, I'll pass your request for an urgent call to my colleagues.

Thanks,

Is there any chance that we could arrange for a discussion this week?

I have a few issues which are time sensitive.

Good morning!

Our May 21st ISED letter granting forbearance from certain parts of the lawful interception requirements requires that we have discussions in October 2016 on progress towards full compliance to the Solicitor General requirements. This is the reason for my email.

As I had mentioned when we spoke in April,

Please let me know when you are available for a discussion.
